Workshop Speakers and Instructional Team

Professor Fran Jabara is the founder and director of The Center for Entrepreneurship at Wichita State University. The Center, founded in 1977, was one of the first comprehensive programs in the nation devoted to entrepreneurial education.

Professor Jabara has been a Distinguished Professor in Business at Wichita State since 1971. He joined the university faculty in 1949, and served for seven years as Dean of the College of Business Administration.

Professor Jabara is a nationally-known management consultant, and a widely-respected speaker on the subjects of entrepreneurship, financial control, and growth management. He is currently serving on the board of directors of a number of corporations, including Southwind Software, Sheplers, National Pizza Company, and Union National Bank.

A certified public accountant, Professor Jabara received his undergraduate degree from Oklahoma State University, and completed graduate studies at Northwestern University.

He is currently active in many civic and professional organizations at the local, state and national levels. Professor Jabara is a board member of Kansas, Inc., and was the chairman of the Kansas delegation to the 1986 White House Conference on Small Business. Recently he was awarded the prestigious Leavey Award for Excellence in Private Enterprise Education by the Freedoms Foundation.

Ron Christy is the Associate Director of the Center for Entrepreneurship at Wichita State University. He has been on the faculty for 16 years and has taught 19 different courses, including marketing, research and statistics, management, and entrepreneurship classes.

Christy has published three books including The Complete Information Bank for Entrepreneurs and Small Business Managers, published by the American Management Association, and the most recent, Entrepreneurship: Your Future In Business. Both Books were co-authored with Dr. Billy M. Jones.

In addition to his academic accomplishments, he has owned seven different businesses including, a furniture manufacturing company, furniture retail and wholesale firm, a packing, shipping and crating company, and a consulting firm.

Dr. Gerald H. Graham holds the R.P. Clinton Distinguished Professor of Management Chair in the W. Frank Barton School of Business at Wichita State University. Dr. Graham was awarded the WSU Excellence in Teaching Award and the George Lewis Teaching Award. He has authored four books in the area of management and human relations.

Graham writes The Applied Management Newsletter, a monthly training publication, and currently writes a twice-monthly management column for the Knight Ridder newspaper chain.

Dr. Ivan E. Brown is an assistant professor of management in the Barton School of Business at the Wichita State University. He teaches leadership and organization development and has earned the exceptional teaching award in the Barton School.

Ivan consults with many businesses such as Pizza Hut, Inc. on issues of leadership and management. Ivan also is involved in three small businesses, including a medical products manufacturing company, a packing, shipping and crating company, and a real estate investment firm.
